RDA

- July 1, 2017, SHARE will implement RDA
- WHAT DOES THIS MEAN? Basically -
 - Catalogers will be responsible for importing records based on RDA Guidelines

JUST DO IT.

Hey Traci – what do you think
RDA stands for?

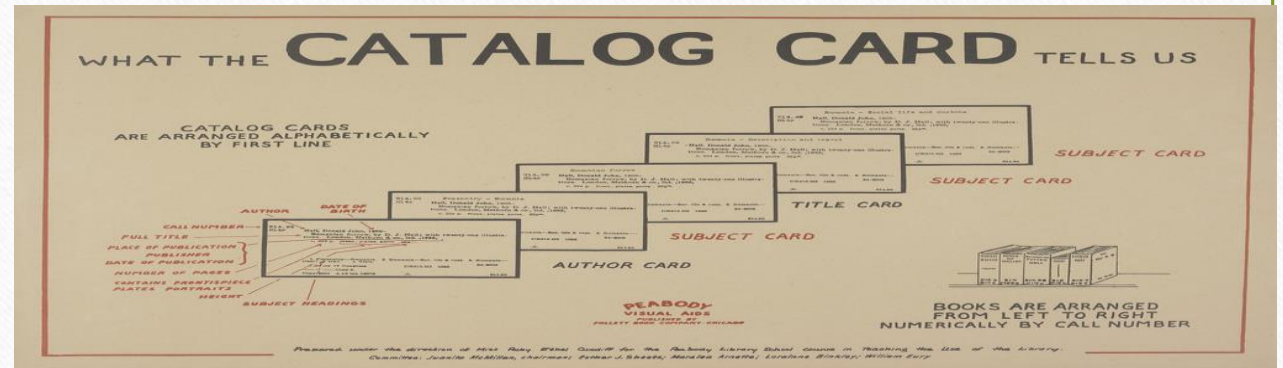

I don't know
Chris. REALLY
ACTIVITIES?

So what does it all mean?

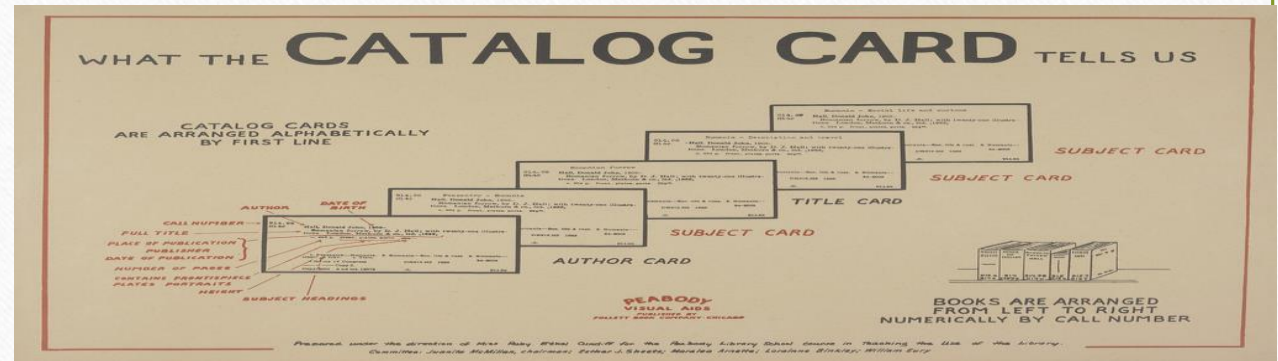

- Cataloger
- Barcoder
- Circulation or Reference staff
- Director

Cataloger

- Will have to learn new guidelines

Cataloger

- Will have to learn new guidelines

Cataloger

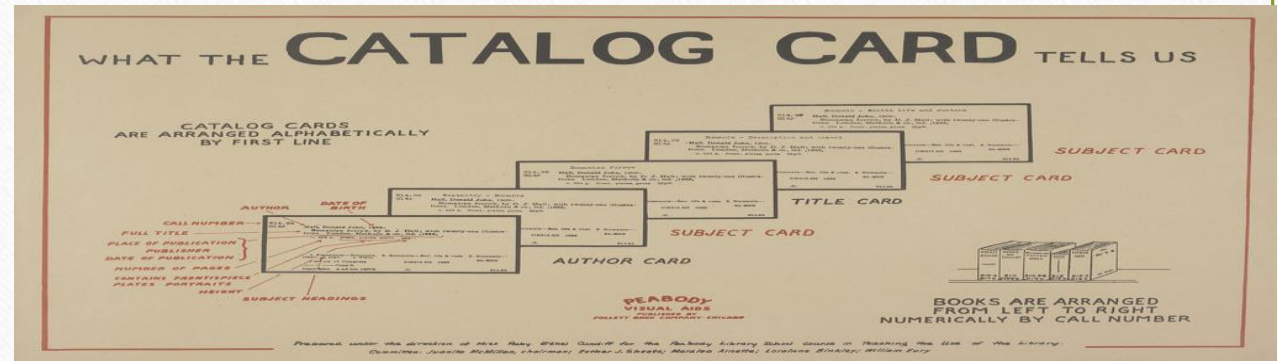

- Will have to learn new guidelines
- Will have to be able to change records cataloged using AACR2 to RDA before importing into Polaris
- No more 260, use the relator terms, spell out abbreviations
- Uses an entity-relationship model, rather than descriptive analysis, based on FRBR – using WEMI

Cataloger

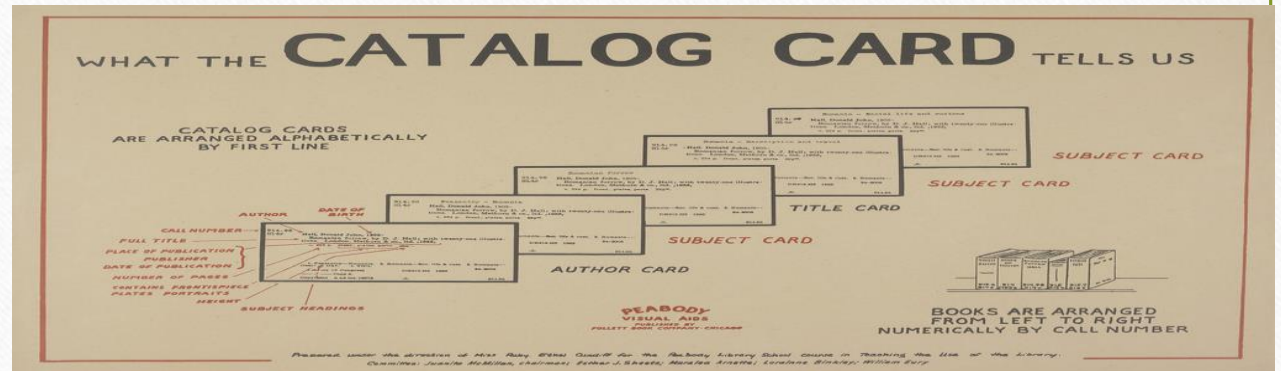

- Uses an entity-relationship model, rather than descriptive analysis, based on FRBR – using WEMI
 - Work – the story, the song, the essay
 - Expression – a specific intellectual or artistic form of the work (text in English and Spanish, audiobook, etc.)
 - Manifestation – something published or produced – text in English is manifested by a book by a particular publisher
 - Item – what you hold in your hand or access on your computer

Cataloger

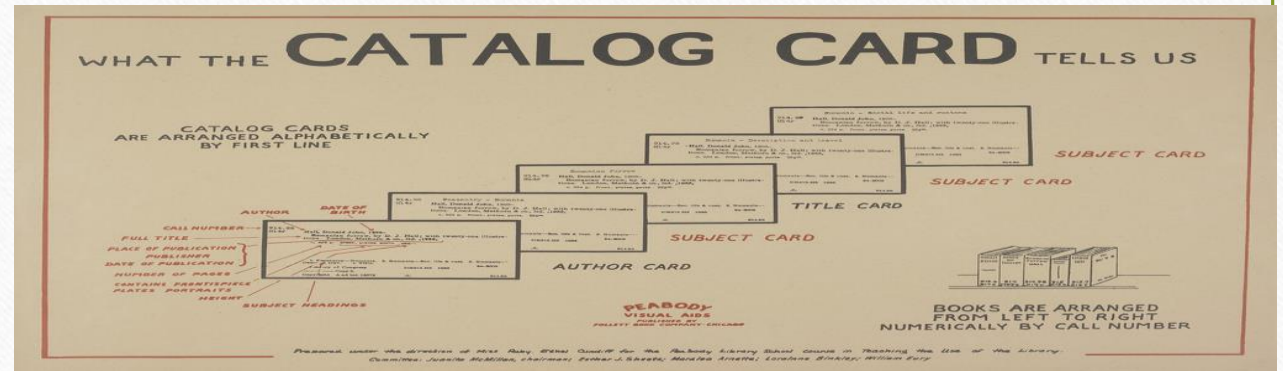

- These are guidelines NOT rules
- Use of Cataloger's judgment is allowed – how do we do that in a consortium – Make sure you are aware of our Operational Guidelines found on the SHARE website

Cataloger

- Training - we've been discussing these changes and how they affect MARC for the last year. See the recordings for our Cataloger's Training Sessions (SHARE training site)
- Checklists for books, video recordings and sound recordings can be found on the SHARE website
- Hosted a 2 day training session for copy catalogers and will be providing this same information in other training.

Cataloger

- Use of MARC Report – actually will help you when upgrading items from AACR2 to RDA
- Group purchase of RDA Toolkit

Barcoders

- MARC View – always match from the MARC view since this provides more information than from the PAC view.
