

Multitype Borrowing

Reciprocal borrowing is defined as borrowing from one public library to another. Within SHARE, academic, school, and special library cards are not accepted at a public library without an intergovernmental agreement or contract between multitype libraries. SHARE allows cooperation between agencies to develop these agreements.

For further information regarding the definition of both reciprocal borrowing and what constitutes a public library, please see:

ILLINOIS COMMITTEE ON ADMINISTRATIVE RULES
ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

TITLE 23: EDUCATION AND CULTURAL RESOURCES
SUBTITLE B: CULTURAL RESOURCES
CHAPTER I: SECRETARY OF STATE
PART 3030 THE ILLINOIS LIBRARY SYSTEM ACT
SECTION 3030.110 DEFINITIONS

<http://www.ilga.gov/commission/jcar/admincode/023/023030300A01100R.html>